Today we are visiting the Morean Arts Center.

The Morean Arts Center has an amazing contemporary art gallery. They also offer art classes.

Today we will explore the contemporary art exhibit.

When we enter the lobby of the Morean Arts Center, first we will see the front desk. A greeter will welcome us to the Arts Center.  Then we can walk through the gallery on our own.

The Morean Arts Center gallery has a lot of beautiful artwork.

I will keep my hands at my sides. The art is very delicate, and it could break if I touch it. I will walk through the museum slowly so there will be no accidents, and everyone will be safe.

If I need something to play with, I can use a fidget from the Distract Pak.

To the left of the entrance, there is a gift shop. The gift shop sells items that can break, so I will keep my hands at my sides. I will walk through the gift shop slowly so there will be no accidents, and everyone will be safe.

The art galleries are to the right of the entrance. The first room is the Hough Gallery. The second room is the Synovus Gallery.

The artwork in the galleries changes frequently. Sometimes staff even paint the walls different colors.

The third room is the Everett Gallery. The fourth room is the John Kirk Stanley Gallery.

These galleries can be loud because there is a Caribou Coffee shop on the other side of the iron gate.

4 John Kirk Stanley Gallery

Through the wooden exit doors in the John Kirk Stanley Gallery there are the bathrooms, the water fountain, the Risser Gallery, and the entrance to the Caribou Coffee shop.

There is a long hallway directly across from the wooden exit doors of the John Kirk Stanley Gallery. The bathrooms and water fountains are in this hallway.

The Risser Gallery is to the the left of the wooden exit doors of the John Kirk Stanley Gallery.

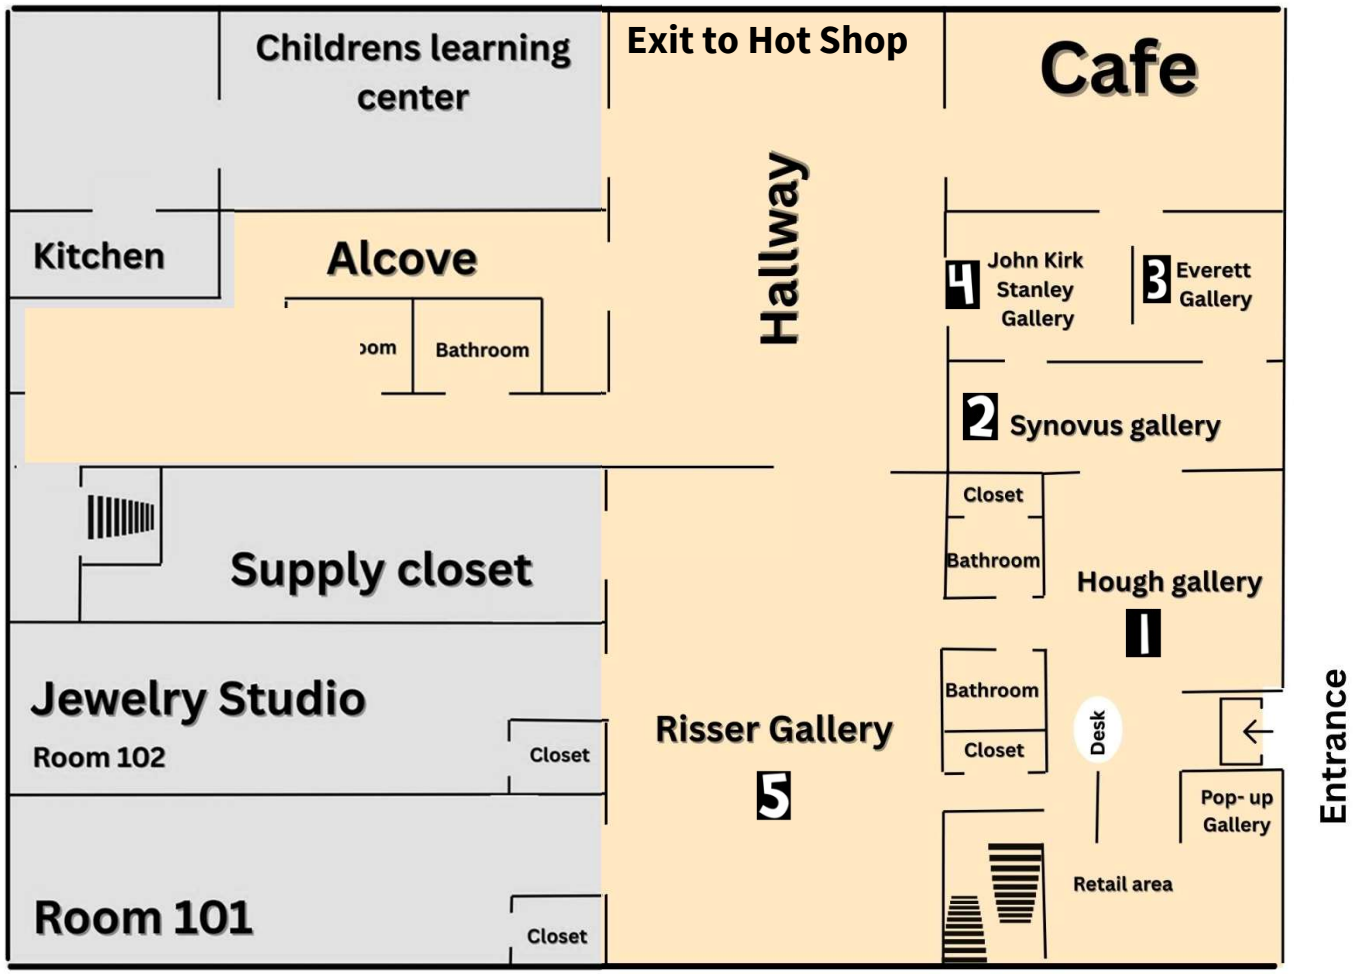

The entrance to the Caribou Coffee shop is to the right of those same wooden exit doors.

There is an exit door next to the Caribou Coffee shop. The exit door opens onto 7th Street North. Exit through this door and turn left to walk to the Morean Glass Blowing Studio. The glass blowing studio is also called the “Hot Shop”.

I can use this map to help me find my way around the Morean Arts Center.

I will stay in the tan areas of the map. The gray areas are for staff and students only.

The Morean Arts Center galleries were beautiful.
